Date: 23 Jun, 2025

To
Prof Bernd Blobel
University of Regensburg,
Germany

On behalf of Scholars Conferences, I am pleased to formally invite you to join us as a poster presenter at the "3rd World Congress on Earth Science, Climate Change & Sustainability", scheduled to take place on March 25-26, 2026 at London, UK.

The theme of this year's conference is "Bridging Earth Science, Climate Change Mitigation, and Sustainable Development" and We would also like to highlight that your abstract entitled "Designing and Managing Intelligent and Ethical Transformed Health and Social Care Ecosystems" has been approved for an poster presentation.

We believe that your expertise in the field will be an invaluable contribution to the discussions and sessions. We are confident that your presentation will engage and inspire our attendees, and we would be honored to have you share your insights and experiences with our audience.
