On behalf of Scholars Conferences, I am pleased to formally invite you to join us as a speaker at the " INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S FORUM, scheduled to take place on March 23-24, 2026 at London, UK.

The theme of this year's conference is "Breaking Barriers, Shaping the Future of Women" and We would also like to highlight that your abstract entitled "Welcome Latest Research Articles In Field Of Science" has been approved for an oral presentation.

We believe that your expertise in the field will be an invaluable contribution to the discussions and sessions. We are confident that your presentation will engage and inspire our attendees, and we would be honored to have you share your insights and experiences with our audience.
